

Government
of Canada

Gouvernement
du Canada

Canada.ca > Health > Publications – Health

> Publications – Healthy living

Because life goes on ... helping children and youth live with separation and divorce

---

Table of contents

Acknowledgements

Send us your feedback on Because Life Goes On...

Section 1 – Introduction

- How Because Life Goes On ... Can Help You and Your Children
- Every Situation Is Unique
- If You're Worried About Safety
- How to Use This Resource
- Separation: The Cascading Changes for Children
- A Word About the Language of Separation or Divorce
- Family Law: Where to Turn for Information and Guidance

Section 2 – Taking Care of Yourself: Inside and Out

- Taking Care of Your Mental and Physical Health
- Some Tips for Reducing, Preventing and Coping with Stress
- Understanding How Our History Has Shaped Our Parenting
- Learning to Let Go of Anger

- Three Key Steps

- Learning Important Lessons from the Past

Section 3 – Communicating and Connecting with Your Children

- Looking at Separation Through the Eyes of Your Child
  - Infants and Young Toddlers
  - Younger Children
  - Preteens and Teenagers
- What I Want from My Parents: An Unspoken Wish List
- Talking to Your Children About Your Separation and Preparing Them for Change
- Expect Tears, Protests and Lots of Questions
- Give Your Children a Voice
- Looking Through the Eyes of a Young Person
- Communicating Effectively with Children, Preteens and Teenagers

Section 4 – Protecting Children from Conflict

- Impact of Parental Conflict on Children
- Understanding Conflict
- Some Tips to Help You Reduce Conflict with Your Ex-Partner
- Differences Between a Hard and a Soft Start-Up
- Understanding Anger
  - Skillful Handling of Anger
- Preventing Impulsive Decisions or Actions: “The 24-Hour Rule”
  - Identify Negative Thought Patterns That Trigger Your Anger

Section 5 – Parenting Practices: Raising Resilient Children

- What Is Resilience?

- Good Parenting Protects Children from Risk
- Get Connected with Your Provincial Resources
- Warm, Enthusiastic and Firm
- A Checklist for Authoritative Parenting
- Match Your Expectations to Your Child's Temperament
- Attend to Your Children's Sense of Identity and Belonging
  - What You Can Do
- Acknowledge Your Child's Perspective and Empathize
- Spend Some Special Time with Each Child
- Encourage Play and Recreation
- Focus on Effort
- What Parents Can Do to Help Children at Every Age
- Maintain Your Child's Community of Support
- What Grandparents – and Close Relatives and Friends – Can Do
- Use Discipline to Teach
- Teaching Your Children to Resolve Conflict
- Dealing with Your Children's Anger
  - Tip #1: Stay Calm
  - Tip #2: Increase Emotional Awareness
  - Tip #3: Accept Feelings and Redirect Angry Actions
  - Tip #4: Use Clear and Consistent Consequences to Limit Aggressive Behaviour
  - Tip #5: Above all, don't take it personally

Section 6 – Moving Forward: From a Couple to Co-Parents

- Children Want and Need Both Parents in Their Lives
- Fathers Also Play an Important Role

- What Is Family Mediation?
- “Getting to Yes” for the Children
- “I Do” Agree to Co-Parent
- Choosing the Best Option for Reaching Agreements
- A Parenting Plan: The Co-Parenting Management Tool
- When Cooperative Co-Parenting Seems Impossible – Parallel Parenting
- Cooperative Parenting vs. Parallel Parenting

Section 7 – Helping Children at Every Age

- A Child’s Age and Stage of Development Make a Difference
- Infants and Toddlers
- Typical Behaviours, Developmental Issues and Signs of Stress
  - What You Can Do
- Preschoolers (3–5 years)
  - Typical Behaviours and Developmental Issues
- What Is “Temperament”?
  - Reactions to Stress
  - What You Can Do
- Help Make Transitions Easier for Children
  - When Your Child Leaves
  - When Your Child Returns
- Early Elementary School Children (6–8 years)
  - Typical Behaviours and Developmental Issues
  - Communication Is Important
  - Signs of Stress
  - What You Can Do

- “Virtual” Parenting
- Pre-teens (9–12 years)
- What Happens Next ?
  - Typical Behaviours and Developmental Issues
  - Signs of Stress
  - What You Can Do
- Teenagers (13–17 years)
  - Typical Behaviours and Developmental Issues
  - Signs of Stress
  - What You Can Do

Section 8 – Special Issues and Concerns

- When a Child Is Abandoned
  - What You Can Do
- When a Child Rejects One Parent
  - The Characteristics of a Child Who Unreasonably Rejects a Parent
  - What You Can Do
- When There Is Violence in the Home
  - What You Can Do
- What Children Need to Hear About Family Violence
  - When You Suspect Child Abuse

Section 9 – New Relationships, Dating and Blended Families

- Remember What All Children Need Regardless of Age
- When Parents Start Dating
  - Dating Again: Cautions and Tips
- New and Blended Families
- Stepfamily vs. Blended Family

- Blending Families: Skills and Strategies for Success
- Children Adjust Differently - by Age and Gender

Section 10 – Conclusion

- Because Life Goes On ...

Section 11 – Resources

- Linking You to What You Need
- An Internet Site You'll Want to Know About
- What Do I Do When ...
  - I need to find quality care
  - I'm looking for local support or assistance
  - I have financial needs
  - I'm considering getting back together as a couple
  - I need legal services and information
  - I want to connect with family law services in my province or territory
  - I can't afford legal services
  - I want recommendations on books or articles on parenting after separation, step parenting, blended families, or other topics
  - I want recommendations on books or websites that are appropriate for children and youth
  - One parent is moving away. What should I do?
  - I'm looking for more general information on adult and child health, mental health and well-being
  - My family is experiencing violence

Online Resources

Download the entire report

(PDF format, 1,058 KB, 168 pages)

Order a copy

Copyright notice

Organization: Public Health Agency of Canada

Type: Guidance

Date published: September 2016

ISBN: 978-0-660-04541-2

Cat. No.: HP35-68/2016E

Pub.: 150254

Related Topics

- Health Behaviour in School-aged Children in Canada: Focus on Relationships
- Eating Disorders in Teens - Information for Parents and Caregivers
- What's Wrong with Spanking?

Date modified:

2016-09-21